

Blog

JFNA to hold General Assembly online amid coronavirus pandemic

Oct 19, 2020

0

The Jewish Federations of North America will be holding its General Assembly online amid the coronavirus pandemic. As with many other events amid the health crisis, annual or one-offs, this will be the first time the event will be held fully online — which the Jewish Federation intends to take full advantage of, offering "surprises that are only possible" due to the venue being broadcast online. Read more and register now.

Back to blog

Related News and Articles

Jewish Federations awarded 3-year, $11.5 million grant by Mandel Foundation

Building on the success of an initial three-year, $9.5 million investment beginning in 2023, the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Supporting Foundation has awarded Jewish Federations of North America...

The General Assembly

November 8-10, 2026 | Washington, D.C.

Selma Blair, Modi among key speakers at 2026 General Assembly

Jewish Federations of North America's annual General Assembly convenes thousands of Jewish leaders from around the world to address the Jewish community's most pressing challenges. The most influen...

Jewish Federations Statement on Yom Kippur Belleville Synagogue Shooting

Jewish Federations of North America are horrified by the shooting outside the Sons of Jacob Synagogue in Belleville, Ontario, as members of the Jewish community gathered to observe Yom Kippur, the ...

