Press & Media Credentialing Now Available for NRB 2021

GRAPEVINE, Texas (NRB) –NRB, the nation’s preeminent association of Christian broadcasters and communicators, will host its annual convention June 21-24, 2021 at the Gaylord Texan Resort & Convention Center in Grapevine, Texas.

NRB 2021 is the premier conference for Christian communicators and will feature more than 80 speakers who serve as Christian leaders and experts in their industries. At NRB 2021, you’ll have opportunities to grow your ministry or organization, reach more people with your message, conduct interviews, and engage your audience effectively.

“NRB has gathered Christian communicators from around the globe since 1944,” said Daniel Darling, NRB senior vice president of communications. “There is no better event to find stories, interview leading influencers and communicators, and network in Christian media. We welcome press and media to come and enjoy this gathering.”

Press and media credentialing is now available for NRB 2021. Interested members of the press and media should email presscenter@nrb.org to receive an application.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Bob Pritchett, CEO of Faithlife

- Paula Faris, Emmy-Award winning journalist, author and podcaster
- Tony Evans, Founder and President of The Urban Alternative
- Mark Jobe, President of Moody Bible Institute
- David French, Senior Editor of The Dispatch
- Kristen Waggoner, General Counsel for Alliance Defending Freedom

Along with the lineup of speakers at NRB 2021, is the Exposition – a bustling, one-stop hub for services, products and organizations. Organizations expecting to exhibit at NRB 2021 include:

- Aberdeen Broadcast Services
- Amazing Facts
- American Family Association
- CrossMedia/Lightcast
- Faith Radio
- Grace and Truth Radio
- Ministry in the Marketplace
- SuperChannel WACX-TV
- Westar Media Group
